

Training and education

'The facilitator made a dry subject really interesting and relevant. Great facilitator, great variety in content, stories, activities, audience participation.'

Training courses

Training for Queensland state and local government employees focusing on managing complaints and unreasonable conduct, making decisions and dealing with ethical dilemmas.

Training calendar

Find out when our next round of training is scheduled in Brisbane or in the regions.

Book a training course

Book your training online today!

Community engagement

Book a free information session to learn more about our role.